Does Fiji have a good energy supply?

Like for many other SIDS Fiji's geographical situation means that affordable and accessible energy supply is a challenge. The Island state depends heavily on imported fossil fuel to meet its energy needs, nevertheless, renewable energy sources, mainly hydro, account for 55% of the country's total energy production.

What is the energy situation in Fiji?

It is a small island developing state (SIDS) that is heavily dependent on imported fossil fuel for its energy needs. The paper attempts to determine the past and current energy situation in Fiji, challenges faced and strategizes to overcome these challenges. In 2014, Fiji generated 859 GWh of grid electricity from 259.8 MW of power plants.

Does Fiji have hydro power?

Hydro power makes the largest contribution from renewable energy resources for electricity production in Fiji. Currently, there is 130 MW of installed capacity of hydro power out of which 0.18 MW is installed by FDoE for off-grid power while the rest is installed by FEA (grid-connected).

How can Fiji improve energy security?

Currently hydro power accounts for a large proportion of Fiji's renewable energy generating. However, scaling up other renewable energy technologies, such as solar, would diversify state's energy mix and thereby help improve energy security.
